MIXES CUSTARD ON HIS WIFE.

Husband Bombs Her with Eggs First, then Milk. She Gets Deceit.

Because he ran a delicatessen store in Newark, N. J., and could afford it, Henry Schuler used eggs as a missile and his wife, Mrs. Bertha Schuler, as a target. He threw them singly, which took longer and prolonged the battle, and evidently some of the eggs went wild, for his wife testified in the wife's divorce suit yesterday that eggs scattered the room of the home.

It was also in evidence that Mr. Schuler later cast a can of condensed milk at his wife and again he drove her out of the house at the time the milk wagon rolls along. The decree was granted by Judge Wood on the grounds of desertion, cruelty, nonsupport and habitual intoxication.

Mr. and Mrs. Deaver are taking their honeymoon via auto.

In the North.

Mrs. Sylvester Weaver left Thursday for Del Monte to spend the week-end with Mr. Weaver, who is at the military camp. Prior to the departure of the latter, a farewell dinner with covers for twenty-eight guests, was given at the Weaver beach home, Mrs. Weaver having invited the office assistant of the Weaver Roof Company, of which her husband is president, and a number of his employees.

Rev. N. J. Day.

Kennington School, No. 1441 Orange street, was the scene of a very happy party Thursday afternoon to celebrate the birthday of Lillian Berne Steadman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steadman of Imperial, Cal. The Misses Tubey were assisted by Mrs. Mary Manning, who was one of the reigning belles of Los Angeles in her girlhood days, will arrive today from New York for the summer of her mother, Mrs. Mary H. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Norris, who, as Miss Mary Manning, was one of the reigning belles of Los Angeles in her girlhood days, will arrive today from New York for the summer of her mother, Mrs. Mary H. Manning, of No. 553 South Commonwealth avenue, and of other guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bradley of Harvard boulevard will entertain friends at a party at the Mason, tomorrow. The guests of honor will be Miss Alice Curtin of San Francisco, a charming visitor who has been in Los Angeles the past month.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fitzsimmons and charming young daughter, Miss Frances, of Chicago, and Mrs. M. L. Barry, of Los Angeles, California, while guests at the Town and Country Club, formerly Mr. Washington Hotel, Mr. Fitzsimmons is a South girl, a graduate of the class of '15.

Honeymooners Return.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Donnat, who were married June 14, are back from their honeymoon, which was spent at Lake Tahoe and San Francisco. Before her marriage Mrs. Donnat was Miss Vernia Welch, the attractive daughter of J. J. Welch of this city, and many smart antipathies were given her. The young couple were started house-keeping in a pretty bungalow in Highland Park.

suit case, that contained clothing and trunks. The police were unable to find out which one of the mob added larceny to vicious assault.

For a time officials of the Llewellyn Iron Works did not know whether Messrs. Blush, Cushman and Wright had boarded the steamer, and there were fears the three iron workers had been kidnapped by the mob. However, a wireless message was received yesterday saying the three were safe on the boat.

Another Assault.

The second assault by the unionists on a peaceful workman occurred late Wednesday night. Being anxious to return to his family in Los Angeles for the night, Warren Neville, No. 1442 East Twenty-eighth street, an independent workman who has been employed at the Hammond Lumber plant, was waiting for a car. The suit case he carried was snatched from him, and he was surrounded by a growing crowd of unionists. He asked them to stop, but they refused. He was then pushed and shoved, and a union leader, elated in the face, police officers pushed through the crowd with difficulty, and arrested the union leader.

Information from the police station that the seven Mexicans arrested late last night at a dance had been released, was a relief to the unionists. It seems that the seven arrested although they were the acknowledged laborers taking strikes' workmen. The defeated ones, who gave their names as G. Vasquez, J. Antonio, Frank Farina and J. Hernandez, were cut and bruised on the assault, but their injuries were not serious.

WORK GOES WELL.

Lumber and what companies yesterday had larger forces than at any other time during the strike and work was progressing smoothly, barge cargoes being unloaded by free workmen.

The steamer Harvard brought the first cargo loaded at San Francisco by union longshoremen. She discharged 150 tons of general merchandise, the independent longshoremen being ready in large numbers to work.

A large tonnage was loaded on the steamer Governor, which sailed north in the afternoon. The Yale also got away with heavy cargo of general merchandise. There are eight large lumber schooners being unloaded by independent longshoremen who are taking the places of the strikers. The steamer Golden Gate, from Mexican ports, was unloaded by local unionists.

Union dockworkers held another meeting in their hall yesterday, and again considered going back to work under the open shop and at the old scale of wages. Men with families are one to let and he considers he got back to work while they have a bare chance.

The dock and yards of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company and the Portland Steamship Company are being included with a substantial fence. This action will probably be followed by the Wilmington Transportation Company and the Outer Harbor Dock and Wharf concern.

Leo Carillo, who is making a big hit as a detective in "Servant-Master-Lover," has been arrested by the police.

Roles and Reels.

HITS AND SPECIALITIES

NEWS AND GOSSIP OF THE SHOW SHOPS AND STUDIOS.

By Grace Kingsley.

Sir Herbert Beerbohm-Tree will appear in the Triangle in a film version of Rupert Hughes' novel, "The Old Folks at Home." Chester Withey will direct. Mary O'Connor and Withey will write the scenario. The story is a rural comedy. Tree will play the role of a self-sacrificing father who gives up everything in life to help a wayward son. Sir Herbert says he has always wanted to play an American way-down-East type of the Danman Thompson sort.

Laughs This Time.

Glad appearing in "Diane of the Folies" at the Fine Arts studio, under the direction of Rupert Hughes, Miss Glad plays the role of a chorus girl. She declares it is entirely different from any she has ever assumed. "I hold the record as champion desecrated wife in the films," said Miss Glad. "I counted up the other day and find I've been desecrated fifteen times. In this play, I'm delighted to say, I leave my husband flat. And I don't mind to pursue him either, which, of course, will make it rather lonely at first, but I shall use it to my advantage."

Fay as Lumber Girl.

"Lumber Girl," the play by Anita Loos, which Fay Tincher is now doing for the Fine Arts, would appear to be a very clever travesty on the life of a girl employed in a laundry, who is taken from her natural economic environment and placed in a world of luxury and glamour. The play is a noted screen favorite's work is an amusing feature.

Mrs. Wilcox Approves.

Miss Wheeler Wilcox, noted writer and poet, is appearing at the Fine Arts in a play called "The Brat" Wednesday afternoon. Her remarks on the play were highly gratifying to Miss Fulton.

Atmosphere Note.

The music of "La Boheme," which accompanies the picture of the same name, at Tally's Broadway, is being given a delightful interpretation by the Tally orchestra and pipe-organ. There are few, if any, American producers who could have given "La Boheme" the production which Albert Capellani has accomplished. It required not only an intimate knowledge of the Paris of the period, but also an understanding of the social life of the Quartier Latin, and Capellani has both. Those who know Paris will recognize the accuracy of the locations and detail.

Leo Stops at Nothing.

Leo Carillo, who is making a big hit as a detective in "Servant-Master-Lover," has been arrested by the police.

Orpheum Winner.

The biggest triumph act ever offered at the Orpheum is announced for Monday the 31st. It is the big Russian ballet, "The Blue Paradise," a pair of Silk Stockings. Avery Hopwood's "Pal and Warden," "Very Good Eddie," Julian Eltinge, "Common Clay," David Warfield, "Hit-the-Trail Holiday," "Bird of Paradise," "Experience," "Just a Woman," "It Pays to Advertise," "Hudson's Choice," Robert Hilliard in a new play, "Houses of Glass," "Princess Pat" and Bransford's Grand Opera Company.

Going Bagging.

Fred Warren of Warren and Dietrich, at the Hippodrome this week, announced in these columns a few days ago that he was a collector of butterflies, says that whoever tackled on the note, "How about the butterfly?" sure knew what they were talking about, as he (Warren) has not had a minute's rest since he tackled, with a bunch of them trying to sell him butterflies. It pays to advertise.

conference feel is especially qualified for the position.

The high standing of the men who compose the Southern California Dental Association makes the commendation of Gov. Johnson one of notable importance at this stage, when he is seeking to secure fresh political honors under the cloak of Republicanism. The Dental Association is never partisan in its actions, but it was plain to be seen at yesterday's meeting that it will have none of Hiram Johnson.

Following the afternoon session an informal banquet was held at the California Club, at which Dr. W. E. Crummer of Toronto, delivered "A Message from the West," and Dr. Richard H. Reithmiller of Philadelphia delivered an address on "The Future of the Profession." Other speakers were Dr. J. W. Nebett of Riverside, Dr. Fred E. Hart, San Francisco, Dr. F. K. Leary of Oak Knoll, known as the richest man in the profession, and Dr. M. Fontaine of this city. Dr. Frank D. Holman was last speaker. The session this morning will be devoted to the reading of papers by Dr. Donald Frick and C. C. Brown. The afternoon will be given over to a consideration of progressive dentistry. Tomorrow the principal business of the association will be held. The election of officers is scheduled for 11 o'clock in the forenoon. The convention will end with the general discussion of dentistry during the afternoon.

A GREAT IDEA.

Roy Fernandez, Yale graduate and all-around college man, has hit on the idea of organizing a country club for photographers where those with an inclination toward golf and tennis can enjoy their favorite sports. Fernandez is an enthusiastic golfer and has already put on foot a movement for a golf course among the players at Universal City, where he is appearing in the picture, "The Handsome Stranger." Fernandez first won distinction by winning the Universal's handsome man contest which gave him a year's engagement as a leading man. He is now working with Lois Weber and Phillips Smalley in a picture to be released under the title of "Idle Wives."

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

Apparently temporarily demented because he said her husband had disappeared, Mrs. Angela Murieta last night attempted to die by swallowing a quantity of carbolic acid in her room in a hotel at First and Boyle streets. The fortunate circumstance that she was so near the door, and that she was not alone, saved her life. She was found by a neighbor and taken to a hospital.

HOUSE BURGLARIZED.

Entering through a side window while the owner of the house, Mrs. Sadie Ball, was absent last evening, a burglar ransacked the bungalow No. 146 West Forty-eighth street, obtaining $375 worth of jewelry and silverware. He left no traces.

FIVE SKYLIGHT BURGLAR SUSPECTS ARE JAILED.

FIVE men, believed by the police to be connected in some way with the gang of daring skylight burglars that has terrorized the downtown section of the city in recent weeks, were arrested yesterday afternoon by Detectives Williams and Ingram in a little room at No. 138 1/2 North Spring street. The prisoners are held at the City Jail for investigation of a burglary charge of suspicion of felony being lodged against them.

The five are Davey Capellan, Eddy Stark, A. E. Minor, Arthur Gardner and J. H. Beutler. Minor is said to have a long record at San Quentin. When arrested Beutler had a large caliber revolver in his possession. Each of the men were found and refused to give information concerning themselves or companions, except names and his real home. The detectives will be compelled to work from a different angle today. The prisoners, however, admitted they do not live at the North Spring-street address.

Human Chain.

Dr. Z. F. Walker, one of the general superintendents of this demonstration, was the preacher, and there was spirited music by a large chorus, representing many sections of this part of the State as well as various places in other States, were in attendance.

AGAIN LOOKS BAD FOR JOB.

New Danger Threatens Burks in City Council.

Two Friends Apparently Join the Opposition.

Efficiency Bureau Salaries Still in Doubt.

An apparent change in the attitude of Councilman Langdon on the question of retaining or "hiring" Efficiency Director James D. Burks gave a new angle to the contest over his place before the City Council yesterday.

The fight was opened yesterday when Councilmen Beckwith and Wright of the Budget Committee reported unfavorably on the resolution introduced by Councilman Langdon.

Members of the anti-Burks faction consisted of only the three members of the Public Works Committee, Councilmen Topham, Beckwith and Wright, and President Beckwith.

The majority report of Councilmen Beckwith and Wright asserted that the Efficiency Department has been wasteful in its $13,800 yearly salary account and has caused loss in other departments.

Some time ago I stated that I believed Mr. Burks was temperamentally unfit for his position, and I believe that his actions have shown that I was absolutely right.

When the budget comes up for action, will you vote for or against an amendment to include the salary of Mr. Burks?

Through the details of a contract entered into yesterday between Oliver Morosco and Leo Carrillo, the Los Angeles boy becomes a Morosco star. Mr. Carrillo is the son of the late Judge Carrillo of Santa Monica, a scion of the famous Arcadia de Baker family, and one of the heirs of its millions, is prominent socially throughout California, and has been one of the best-known vandervillians in American and Europe for some years.

It was while Mr. Carrillo was in newspaper work in San Francisco that he picked up his famous Chinese and Italian dialect roles. A vanderbilt manager heard him amusing some of his friends in the newspaper office one night, and the next day Carrillo was telling the same stories from the stage.

Mr. Carrillo returned to Los Angeles to create a French dialect role in a new play by Morosco entitled "Upstairs and Down." He stayed long enough to create the role of an Italian detective in the present Morosco Theater offering, "Servant-Master-Lover."

Yesterday Mr. Morosco sent for him and placed him under a long term contract with the following details: Mr. Carrillo is to play the French dialect role in "Upstairs and Down" in New York this season. He will then return to Los Angeles, where Mr. Morosco will have in readiness a new play for him with Carrillo as the star in an Italian dialect role, and from that time on will develop him in star roles of dialect characters.

Florencia Flores, apparently an admiral in Pancho Villa's navy, appeared in all the regalia of his rank before Superior Judge Willis yesterday morning and informed the court that his only amusement and joy in life is the sipping of red wine.

Flores created an outburst of applause which might have become an ovation had not Bailiff Aguirre silenced the spectators. Stepping hastily out of the prisoner's cage into the courtroom, he swung a gold-braided yachting cap in his hand. He wore a regular Prince Albert coat, a brilliantly obtrusive and badly soiled silk shirt; no collar, tie or vest; a pair of vivid blue overalls; old-fashioned congress gaiters and no shoes.

The court was nonplussed and after the clerk had informed Flores that he was to be tried for assault, Judge Willis took a hint in his interrogation. The defendant informed the court that he couldn't remember just where, when or how he had obtained possession of his motley array of habiliments.

Judge Willis decided that he should become a useful citizen for the time being, and inasmuch as the rainy season is not far away, and some of the county roads are in need of repair, he arranged for Flores to assist in taking out the uneven contours of the boulevards and making small ones out of big ones for the next ninety days. If Flores has his way about it, he will continue wearing his novel uniform.

Makes Good. COURT'S LENIENCE IS WELL REWARDED. YOUNG PROBATIONER PROVES HIS MANHOOD.

Report to Judge Craig Tells of Happy Marriage and Home Life and Success in Business After Two Years—Record may Win Curtailment of Term of Sentence.

Charles Turner, placed on probation two years ago today by Judge Craig, after conviction of a statutory offense with his present wife, wrote himself a good and useful citizen of Los Angeles, according to the report filed yesterday by Probation Officer Dodds.

Young Turner, son of a prominent St. Louis man and well connected in New York, was found guilty of wronging "Peggy" (Valeria) Alvey, a pretty young motion-picture actress. When brought before Judge Craig for sentence, he declared that he loved the girl and was willing to do anything to right his wrong.

The court offered to place him on probation after giving him and his wife a guarantee that he would educate the girl. This he complied with, sending her through local institutions where she studied domestic science, music and other branches.

During all the time Turner remained attentive and true to her, and a year ago, with the consent of the court, he was married. He purchased a bungalow in the foothills and furnished this as a permanent home for the young couple. Apparently he has been very happy. Mrs. Turner has shown considerable sympathy with a number of charitable works, while her husband has regained his place in the business world, being a successful insurance agent. It is possible that the probation period, which has still eight years to run, will be dispensed with because of the good record made by the principal.

SICKNESS INTERVENES

Typhoid Fever Wins Second Stay of Hearing for Woman Stock Promoter—Is Alleged to Have Swapped Mine Stock for Wearing Apparel.

When Mrs. May McIntyre was scheduled to appear before Superior Judge Craig yesterday afternoon, her attorney stepped up and presented an affidavit to the effect that her children are just convalescing from typhoid fever and that she was unable to leave the house.

Three months ago, at the time the case was called, the same attorney filed affidavit to the effect that Mrs. McIntyre was seriously sick and confined to a Salt Lake hospital.

Mrs. McIntyre is alleged to have sold worthless mining stock to numerous trades people and friends, taking from the former articles of wearing apparel and other products in exchange for stock. Her husband is a mining engineer. The case will now be heard on August 1, providing no other untoward circumstances arise.

ASKS AN INJUNCTION. The New York Lubricating Oil Company brings a bill in the United States District Court, yesterday, against C. W. Pendleton, Jr., operating the "White Garage," asking an injunction, and an accounting. It is alleged that the defendant has been selling oil for use in automobiles, claiming it to be Monogram, and the complainants assert that they own the trade mark. Besides the oil is not Monogram at all, they claim, but some other lubricant that is being disposed of to automobilists to the detriment of the complainants.

The Public Service.

At the City Hall.
MORE AMENDMENTS
FOR THE CHARTER.

IMPROVEMENT FEDERATION
WANTS BIGGER COUNCIL.

Equalization of Taxation, More Power for the Mayor and Place in the Board of Public Works in Streets are Among Proposals Under Consideration.

More amendments to the city charter are proposed by the United Improvement Federation through a special committee that will report its suggestions for five amendments to be presented at the federation meeting at the Grand-avenue school tonight. The committee, consisting of W. H. Savage, A. R. Holston, C. H. Morris, W. H. Swan, Mrs. M. L. Muir and George W. Graydon, prepared its report yesterday, with tentative drafts of the amendments.

District representation in the Council is proposed, with five districts of approximately equal population, and it is proposed that three Councilmen shall be elected from each district, increasing the City Council from nine to fifteen members. "Cumulative" voting is also proposed, whereby each person may distribute his three votes for Councilmen or may give two votes to one and one to another, or, if he desires, give all three votes to one candidate.

The other amendments proposed relate to the equalizing of taxation, increasing the powers of the Mayor and giving the Park Commission control of planting and care of trees in the public streets.

One amendment provides that all interest and sinking fund money on aqueduct and power bonds shall be paid by general taxes and the revenues of the public service department shall be used only for the necessary administrative and operating maintenance and construction. This proposed amendment would also provide that the City Auditor shall levy a tax on all unimproved land within the city, based on the irrigation rate per acre; this tax to be used only for purchase of land for parks and playgrounds and the opening and extending of streets.

Another amendment proposed is to require the city to do all street improvement work.

City Hall Notes.

On motion of Councilman Wheeler yesterday the City Council adopted a resolution providing for the payment of 1 cent a mile to city employees who take their own automobiles in city service and 1 1/2 cents a mile for motorcycles. The resolution provides that special blanks shall be furnished to keep accurate record of all trips, and similar cards are to be used on the use of all city-owned automobiles except those of the police and fire departments.

COME TOO LATE TO ASK LEGAL REDRESS.

NEW TRIAL IS DENIED FIRE
ALARM COMPANY.

Reasons of Limitations Run in Favor of City, Court Rules. Finds Also Irregularities in Method of Making Purchases of Goods Ten Years Ago.

The Gamewell Fire Alarm Company was denied a new trial by Judge McCormick yesterday of its suit to recover possession of police alarm supplies furnished the city ten years ago. The city held up the demands, approximating $14,000, and was awarded judgment on the ground that the action brought by the Gamewell company was barred by the statute of limitations.

The efforts of the Gamewell company to obtain pay for the goods marked an interesting chapter in the city's history. The demands were held up by then City Auditor Muehl, and there were many clashes in the City Council in consequence.

In deciding against the Gamewell company Judge McCormick found that the company waited until everybody was dead, particularly the head of the fire alarm bureau, before commencing suit. He also found that the company was guilty of unreasonable delay, waiting from 1903 to 1913 before seeking legal redress.

The court found that the purchase of the goods was foisted upon the city by the joint acts of the officers of the fire alarm bureau, and the officers of the Gamewell company. It was also disclosed that there was no competition, but that the goods were purchased by the system of splitting regulations, that is, ordering the goods in lots of $500, to come within the provisions of the charter. In other words, that goods to the value of $14,000 were purchased without a contract. The Gamewell company will appeal to the Supreme Court from the judgment.

HE WHO SUMMONED FORD.

Kenneth Fearless, who, through his attempt to subpoena Henry Ford to testify in a preliminary hearing concerning the theft of a Ford machine, achieved some notoriety, was allowed his freedom yesterday. He was accused of having stolen the car of Robert P. Slater. This was recovered and returned to the latter. The evidence was of such flimsy character that the District Attorney's representative yesterday morning advised Judge Craig that it would be useless to carry out the trial. As a result the court dismissed Fearless with the admonition that he be careful in future.

WANTS FREE WATER.

REDONDO TEST CASE.

A. B. Newell yesterday brought suit against the Redondo Water

Company to enjoin the company from disconnecting the service pipes from his premises, to recover $1000 damages and to declare that he is entitled to water for domestic purposes free of charge.

Under the conveyance of the property to Mr. Newell from previous owners, water was to be furnished free. November 13, 1913, it is alleged, the company refused to furnish water unless it was paid for. Mr. Newell declined to pay and the service was cut off. By this lack of water he claims his lawn, flowers and shrubbery were damaged. Under an agreement the service was reconnected, and he is paying. The suit will determine whether the service shall be free or must be paid for.

IN AND OUT.

ABOUT THE COURTS.

UNWELCOME VISITOR. When King Alcohol joined the O'Neill family contentment fled out of the window. In effect Mrs. O'Neill, who is in divorce proceedings before Judge Wood yesterday, thinks the worse with the husband, she said, including an allegation of insular belief, worthless checks, and all attributable to drink. The decree was granted on the grounds of desertion, intemperance and nonsupport.

ONE TOO MANY. After a married life of twenty-two years, Mrs. May Arnes told the court she bought the house on E. Havana March 27, 1910. Five years rolled around, and, believing her husband dead, she married John R. Spencer April 1, 1915. Then, lo, Mr. Arnes reappeared and Mrs. Spencer found herself with two husbands, only one of whom was legal. Yesterday she filed an affidavit suit to annul the first marriage, naming Mr. Arnes defendant.

PHYSICIAN'S HEARING SET IN SEPTEMBER.

DR. LANTERMAN AND NURSE
RELEASED ON RAIL.

Attorneys for Former Coroner Henry H. Peterson and an illegal operation, but Attended Young Girl Ward of Juvenile Court to Save Her Life.

Dr. Roy S. Lanterman, former Coroner, appeared before Justice Palmer yesterday morning for argument on the charge of illegal operation. He was represented by Attorney Miss Elizabeth Johnson, a 17-year-old ward of the Juvenile Court. Mrs. Brown, who is alleged to have attended the girl at the time of the operation, appeared with the physician, and both were allowed their freedom on bond of $1000 each.

The date of the preliminary hearing was set for September 7, before Justice Brown, and will not interfere with the plans of Dr. Lanterman's defense. He was arrested at his La Canada home late Wednesday night, and stated that he had just finished his preparations for a vacation of six weeks in the mountains. Mrs. Brown was arrested at her home, No. 849 Sunset boulevard.

The arrests come as a part of the crusade of the State Medical Board to put a stop to illegal operations which are said to have been performed in large numbers in Los Angeles during the last year or two. Special Agent H. J. Costello of the board was instrumental in developing the evidence on which the warrants were issued.

The first arrest in the effort to put a stop to this character of business was that of Mrs. Lila Atherton, accused of numerous illegal operations, and home over to the superior court for trial on one specific charge, on Wednesday, after bail had been fixed at $2500. It is estimated that there may be several other arrests within the next week.

Attorney Peterson, who is representing Dr. Lanterman, declared that the physician in caring for Miss Johnson did so to save her life after she had been mistreated in a serious manner, either by herself or some other physician.

Jury's Decision.

TODD WILL BE BROKEN.

Late Ventura County Pioneer, Who Killed Himself, Held to Have Been of Unsound Mind at Time of Execution of the Instrument.

On the ground the testator was of sound mind at the time he executed the instrument, a jury in Judge McCormick's court yesterday broke the will of Robert Todd, pioneer ranchman, who was a Ventura County resident, and who died about 1900, leaving mostly of fifty-five shares of stock of the First National Bank of Los Angeles.

The will provided that his widow, Mrs. Annie Todd, should receive half of the estate, the other half, with the exception of a few bequests, to be placed in trust, the income to be paid to her children. The will was contested by Frank S. Todd, nephew, and George H. Todd, nephew, who they introduced evidence to show that Mr. Todd had been committed to Patton and that he had a mental mania.

Unless an appeal is taken from the verdict the estate will be administered. The will provided that the shares of the bank stock be given to former Senator Henry M. Hurd and one-eighth of the stock to the Pioneer Cattleman Home. Mr. Todd died February 21, last.

WHERE DID SHE CARRY BACON?

Wife Brings it Home, but is
All Night Doing It.

In Chic House Gown, Goes to Grocer's; Vanishes.

Husband and Police Frantic;
Lady Very Reticent.

Mrs. Tessie LaFarr brought home the bacon, but she will not tell where she carried it. Her reticence is so decisive it is startling.

Just where she carried that bacon is a matter in which her husband and the police are interested. She is a woman of unusual beauty, the wife of Otto LaFarr of Universal City, and lives at No. 141 North Bunker Hill avenue.

Wednesday night before dinner, dressed in a natty housegown, becoming, but rather brief, she went to a nearby grocery store to get some bacon for an omelet. She bought the bacon, paid for it, took it in her hands and walked out of the grocery store.

Then she disappeared. Husband came home. He called "Tessie!" and there was no answer. He looked for her, but she was not to be found. He waited and worried, and finally became alarmed. His excitement carried him to the Central Police Station, and he said he feared his wife had been kidnapped. Some detective men, and they had lured her away, abducted her, kidnapped her, possibly anaesthetized her.

The husband stayed all night and the police hunted all night. Beach roads were watched, cafes were searched, lodgings-houses and hotels were warned. All over the city the cry was, "Where is the beautiful Tessie LaFarr?"

The cry was still going when Mrs. LaFarr appeared at her apartment. She said: "I went where I wanted to go when I wanted to go, and now what do you think of that?"

Her husband said he did not think much of it, but that is a family affair. "Well," said the attractive brunette, "I brought home the bacon, anyway."

And she had. There it was, six slices, wrapped in the grocer's hand and wrapped in the night before. Of course it is no one's business now where Mrs. LaFarr had been, but it would be interesting to know where the bacon had been. At least the police think so.

The Nichols family had its home for many years in a residence in Potter Place, Figueroa street. The senior Mr. Nichols owned a ranch lying between what is now Sixth street and Pico street, and farmed there for many years.

MUST SUPPORT CHILD.

Long Beach Carpenter Who Kidnaped Youngster from His Divorced Wife Asks Leniency

But is Sentenced to Two Years at Labor.

"You appear to be one of the ordinary kind of crooks and I believe a sentence of two years of work on county roads, where your earnings will go to the support of your child, will be very beneficial," said Judge Craig yesterday to Charles R. Chase, a Long Beach carpenter.

Chase was recently arrested in San Francisco on a charge of having kidnaped the child from his mother and was brought back here. Judge Wood held him in contempt of court at the time for failing to provide for the youngster as stipulated at the time the wife obtained her divorce.

Chase made a plea for leniency, but when it was shown he had repeatedly been an offender on this count and had made previous promises to the right thing, the court sentenced him for two years.

THOUSANDS FOR SLAP?

Salisbury Sues Woman Owner of a Broadway Store Building Who She Says Used Blow with Palm as a Reply to Harsh Words.

For the pain and humiliation she alleges she suffered, Miss Grace Gould, a salaried, demands $1000 from Mrs. A. J. Salisbury, who is a resident of the city, in a suit filed yesterday, alleging that she had slapped her.

Mrs. Salisbury has a mercantile establishment at No. 453 South Broadway, and she is the owner of the building. According to Attorney Miss Gould, her client was waiting on a customer last Friday when Mrs. Salisbury took the customer by the arm and talked to her.

Miss Gould exclaimed, it is all right. "You are mistaken about that."

This, she says, was the signal for Mrs. Salisbury to slap her face.

DANCE BATTLE IS DUE TODAY.

Hostile Forces are to Meet
Council Committee.

Arguments Pro and Con Cafe
Diversion Filed.

Liquor Men Deny They Oppose Ordinance.

Consideration of the question whether dancing shall be permitted in hotels and cafes in Los Angeles will bring numerous delegations of citizens for and against the proposition before the Public Welfare Committee of the Council at 3:30 o'clock this morning. In addition to petitions from the Church Federation and the W.C.T.U., against dancing, the committee yesterday received from the forces that are circulating the initiative petition the statement of their arguments to support a request that the Council permit cafe and hotel dancing until the next general election, when an initiative ordinance will be placed on the ballot.

A recent decision of the Supreme Court of Illinois is cited, which says: "There is no necessary connection between the commission of a crime and the commission of a crime."

It was said also that the local brewery interests are opposed to the movement in favor of holding a special election on the dance ordinance.

INCREASES ASSESSMENT.

Council Boosts Taxing Value of Large Acreage Between Pico Street and Wilshire Boulevard and May Raise Other City Tracts.

Representatives of the Rimpson estate who were cited before the City Council as a Board of Equalization yesterday, went away with the valuation of large acreage between Pico street and Wilshire boulevard increased about 34 per cent. Councilman Wheeler, in proposing the increase in valuation, cited that when the land was sold to the Board of Education for a high school site and later when it was provided for streets, it was worth $5000 an acre. The land was assessed originally at $1250 an acre.

The Mullin estate, owning large tracts in the western part of the city, will be cited today to show why a similar general raise in valuation should not be made. Members of the Council also stated that a half-dozed other owners of valuable acreage will also be cited with a view to raising the assessment on unimproved acreage.

One of the appeals for reduction taken under advisement by the Council yesterday came from a San Pedro woman who spent 50 cents car fare and a day's time to ask for a reduction that will amount to $1.20.

The Council disposed of 380 protests yesterday and City Assessor Mallard expressed the opinion that the board can finish its work by Wednesday of next week.

CASE FOR THE DANCE.

The arguments of the pro-dancing committee are summed up as follows: That the police of the city and county recommend this legislation on the ground of public morals.

That it will provide a harmless amusement for the citizens of the city.

That it will keep thousands of citizens tourists within Los Angeles.

That it will eliminate places where unregulated dancing is permitted.

That the present ordinance in force tends to offset the annual advance in the campaign to bring tourists to our city.

That the adoption at this time of the initiative ordinance will give an opportunity to the minority opposed to judge at first hand the effect upon the public welfare.

7. That regulated dancing the world over is now recognized by many religious and social workers and educators as an agreeable and harmless amusement.

8. That the testimony of cafe men shows that dancing decreases drinking.

9. That a majority of the people, men, women, some ministers, many church members and taxpayers generally want regulated dancing in the clubs, in the cafes and in the restaurants without the expense of a special election.

LIQUOR MEN'S STAND.

A representative of the Los Angeles Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association emphatically denied yesterday that that organization is opposed to dancing in local hotels and cafes where liquor is served with meals. It was stated, however, that this association is fighting the proposed movement to hold a special election to vote on an ordinance to permit dancing.

"We are opposed to a special election to decide this dance question on the grounds it would cost the city $10,000," said an officer of the association. "The liquor interests are unwilling to burden the city with the heavy expense. If the City Council cannot decide the issue it should be voted upon at the next general election."

It was said also that the local brewery interests are opposed to the movement in favor of holding a special election on the dance ordinance.

INCREASES ASSESSMENT.

Council Boosts Taxing Value of Large Acreage Between Pico Street and Wilshire Boulevard and May Raise Other City Tracts.

Representatives of the Rimpson estate who were cited before the City Council as a Board of Equalization yesterday, went away with the valuation of large acreage between Pico street and Wilshire boulevard increased about 34 per cent. Councilman Wheeler, in proposing the increase in valuation, cited that when the land was sold to the Board of Education for a high school site and later when it was provided for streets, it was worth $5000 an acre. The land was assessed originally at $1250 an acre.

The Mullin estate, owning large tracts in the western part of the city, will be cited today to show why a similar general raise in valuation should not be made. Members of the Council also stated that a half-dozed other owners of valuable acreage will also be cited with a view to raising the assessment on unimproved acreage.

One of the appeals for reduction taken under advisement by the Council yesterday came from a San Pedro woman who spent 50 cents car fare and a day's time to ask for a reduction that will amount to $1.20.

The Council disposed of 380 protests yesterday and City Assessor Mallard expressed the opinion that the board can finish its work by Wednesday of next week.

CASE FOR THE DANCE.

The arguments of the pro-dancing committee are summed up as follows: That the police of the city and county recommend this legislation on the ground of public morals.

That it will provide a harmless amusement for the citizens of the city.

That it will keep thousands of citizens tourists within Los Angeles.

That it will eliminate places where unregulated dancing is permitted.

That the present ordinance in force tends to offset the annual advance in the campaign to bring tourists to our city.

That the adoption at this time of the initiative ordinance will give
